

IS&T Import / Export ProcedureAnnex A*AGICOA Works Type and Genre definition

1 Type definition

The types of audio-visual works to be entered, which duration is given as a guideline, are defined as follows:

- SH Short film: a single audiovisual work which is not a part of a series and lasts less than 50 minutes.
- SE Series or serials: any audiovisual work of a repetitive nature and consisting of seasons and/or episodes whatever the duration of each of these may be.
- FF Feature film: an audiovisual work of 50 or more minutes, originally intended for primary exploitation by movie theaters (or which has been exploited in such a way).
- TF TV film: an audiovisual work originally produced for television, and not intended for exploitation by movie theaters. Its length is of 50 or more minutes.

2 Genre definition

The Genres also called “Kinds” are defined as follows:

- FI Fiction: Work that consists mainly of invented narrative elements, with the exception of animation.
- AN Animation.
- NF Non Fiction: Work that consists mainly of facts (documentary, political presentation, debate, etc.).